SORROW LODGE

has few equals on the American stage.

Clarksburgers listened this year to some noted platform speakers, among whom are Captain Richmond Pearson Hobson and John Temple Graves, but none of them made a better impression or proved more entertaining than Mr. Willett.

"Peace I leave With You" was a beautiful number of the program and was sung by Messrs. Thorn and Smith and Misses Frost and Smith, as was also "Beyond the Stream of Life," sung by the same singers at the opening of the exercises.

After a musical number following the address, the exercises were brought to a close by ritualistic work and the benediction pronounced by the Rev. W. M. Hudson.

SOCIAL

A committee consisting of Mrs. E. B. Deason, Mrs. F. B. Haymaker, Mrs. Dan Boughner, Mrs. F. A. Armstrong, Mrs. J. F. Edill and Miss Renshaw was appointed by the Marcano Club, at its meeting held at the Waldo Saturday afternoon, to investigate the feasibility of bringing Emil Lieblin, the noted musician to Clarksburg again for another recital. There is some doubt as to the financial end of the proposed venture and it may not be possible for the club to bring this famous artist here again but the committee will decide the question. It was decided to give the musical opera "H. M. S. Pinafore," in the early part of February. Rehearsals for this are going on under the able direction of Prof. Gus Smith which fact is a guarantee of its success. The recital given by the club Saturday afternoon was very pleasing and the several numbers were rendered with excellence.

The Three Table Bridge Whist Club was delightfully entertained Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Moore Jackson, who had for her honor guest Mrs. Samuel B. Stiles, of Parkersburg. Four tables were arranged for the game in the large drawing room and at 5 o'clock an elaborate salad supper was served. Those present were, Mrs. J. W. Williams, Mrs. Thomas W. Pettigrew, Mrs. Isham Keith, Miss Murray, of Pittsburg, Mrs. Dudley D. Britt, Mrs. Gilmer Weston, Mrs. Lucius Hoge, Mrs. John Ruhl, Miss Gallagher, of Charleston, Mrs. William H. Lewis, Mrs. Norval B. McCarty, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. H. F. Criss, Miss Bassek, Mrs. Albert W. Rapp and Miss Hazel Frost.

Mrs. W. T. Probst, Mrs. W. P. Burton, Mr. F. Findlay and sister, Mrs. N. Redmire, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rohrbaugh and little daughter, Mrs. J. G. Hendrickson, Mrs. J. J. Shackelford, and Mrs. C. C. Fulkner and son all returned Saturday night from Grafton, where they attended an elaborate dinner served in the Eagles' hall by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, in honor of the visiting lodge from Fairmont. Several were initiated, among whom was Mrs. Burton, of Frostburg, mother of W. P. Burton, of this city, and being in her 80th year. From the point of advanced age this is a record breaker among auxiliaries.

Mrs. James Madison Jackson, of Parkersburg, entertained with a whist party Saturday evening at her home on Ann street, in honor of Miss Florence Thorn, of Clarksburg, who is the guest of Mrs. A. Gilmer Patton. The affair was quite informal, but one of the most charming little entertainments of the season. Whist was played for some time and then refreshments served. The guests were Miss Thorn, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gilmer Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Sprigg D. Camden, Misses Genevieve Eaton, Grace White, Lulu Wetherell and Anna Jackson; Messrs. Harry Hiteshow, Brent Powell, Russell Fleming, Joe Wetherell, George Ross, Nelson Durwell, Bernard Brown, Clarence Griffin and Urban Thompson.

Saturday night after the show at the Grand Prof. R. L. Crow and his orchestra held a dance and reception in the Elkridge building complimentary to Miss Irene Myers and the remainder of the show company. A delightful musical and dance program was observed and the occasion was a very delightful one. Earlier in the week the show company entertained the orchestra and the function on Saturday night was in return of that.

Miss Florence Thorn, of Clarksburg, was honor guest at a little party given on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Sprigg D. Camden at their home on Ann street. The affair was not large, but those who had the pleasure of being present spent a very charming evening. Parkersburg Dispatch-News.

The women of the Parish Aid Society of Christ Episcopal church will hold a Christmas sale in the assembly room of the Waldo Thursday and Friday afternoons and evenings of this week. All are cordially invited to attend.

The King's Daughters of God M. E. church will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Sellers, 221 Webster street, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

men and doing quite a lot of work in their various lines. Besides the contract mentioned above, they are building twelve houses for the Davis Coal & Coke Company at Piedmont, are just completing eight railroad trestles, sixteen houses, tipples, store, shops, etc., on the Jarvis farm near Shinnston, and will finish fifty houses at Monongah for the Fairmont Coal Company before the close of the year 1937. They have several car loads of material on the road to Thurmond, in the southern part of the state, where they will erect fifty-two houses for the New River Collieries Company and have several contracts with private parties, among which is the splendid new residence of Q. M. Carder on Pike street. Their planing mill is running to its capacity and the store in connection with the mill is doing a good business in builders' supplies.

Some Fancy Chickens

The Imperial Poultry Yards which are owned by Mr. W. S. Hursey, are attracting many visitors just now who admire fine chickens. Mr. Hursey is the originator of the Imperial strain of Barred Plymouth Rocks, of which he raised about 400 this year. These birds sell at from $5 to $25 each and are being shipped to almost every part of the United States, as well as to Mexico and Canada. Two pullets sent from these yards to New York last year, won first and second prizes in three shows held in that state. Just now Mr. Hursey is preparing to send 30 of his choice birds to the State Poultry and Pet Stock Show which is to be held in Fairmont this week, where it is confidently expected he will win some of the principal prizes. A visit to the yards will well repay any one who admires fine chickens and the proprietor is always ready to show interested parties through his pens.
